

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT

Mary Francis Baker (Frankie)

Frankie has worked as a dedicated volunteer at the Opportunity Knocks Thrift Store for three years. This year alone, she has volunteered over 200 hours!

Why do you volunteer?

Frankie heard that volunteers were needed at Opportunities, and since she knew the agency is dedicated to empowering the public through community action aid, Frankie decided she would stop in and give her name. Frankie enjoys the accommodating staff and friendly work environment. She regularly comes every Tuesday and half a day on Wednesday.

“I can sit or stand as I need -- it’s great!
I love it here, I really do.”

Why Opportunities?

Frankie says with a smile, “I love seeing and helping the people.” Frankie’s time serving the public has sparked a passion for working with people, as her previous job was at Nice ‘N’ Easy.

“It does my heart good!”

Thank you Frankie. We mean it when we say

We would not be US ... without YOU!
