

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT

If you've been to the Opportunity Knocks Thrift Store or the Croghan Food Pantry, you'll recognize this lady.

Edna Ritz

Edna has already volunteered
171.5 hours in 2017!

Why do you volunteer? "After working for so long I was looking for something to do. I like to see people from the community. Volunteering at a place that helps the poor or less fortunate people is what I have always wanted to do."

Why Opportunities? "My sister Kee needed help at the Croghan Food Pantry so I started helping her there. She then told me about the thrift store opening and asked if I wanted to help ... I said 'yes'." Now many more members of her family are involved with both the Croghan Food Pantry and Opportunity Knocks Thrift Store. This includes sisters, brothers, in-laws, children and grandchildren.

Thank you Edna. We mean it when we say
We would not be US ... without YOU!
